

AL CAMPOS

January 2012 News & Information

What? A trombone player who can sing?

Al Campos, is an American singer, trombonist, multi-instrumentalist, songwriter, producer & educator. Al was born and raised in Los Angeles, CA. He was introduced to music at a very early age by his mother, Adela who was a recording gospel artist. Al is an artist who is putting together a sound & groove he calls, "Smooth Soul, Funky Jazz & a touch of Latin." And he's doing it Internationally!

Al has spread his musical roots & culture in studios and concert halls all across Europe, as well as 3 concert tours to Tanzania, East Africa in Dar Es Salaam, Arusha, Uganda, Nairobi and most recently, Zanzibar at the Jahazi Literary & Jazz Festival where his music was well received. Campos has deep roots in Gospel, Soul, Jazz & Funk which can be heard in his LIVE performances and on his CD recordings.

Doing his own thing: In 2007 Al Campos released his debut CD entitled, "Old School Lovin.'" A very soulful collection of 11 original compositions written by Al Campos.

The CD was mixed by legendary producer, Mr. Willie Mitchell (Al Green's producer) & his son, Boo Mitchell at Royal Recording Studios in Memphis, Tennessee.

2012 is MINE!: Currently now in 2012, Al has been very busy writing & composing new material with his band, "SoulHarmonic," for his next CD.

He is currently back in his hometown, Los Angeles, escaping the cold Scandinavian winters and will be gigging and networking until the end of March 2012 when he returns to Europe for upcoming engagements.

Book Al Campos & SoulHarmonic now and hear this awesome new sound on your venue stage.
